Linn County Iowa
Linn County has a public safety advisory for voters. The advisory states that voters should be aware of potential risks to their personal information, including without limitation, the possibility of identity theft, and the potential for damage to their credit. The advisory also notes that voters should be aware of the potential for damage to their credit caused by the use of their credit cards. For more information, visit www.linncounty.org.
