Legislative Update - Darrin Gage reported on the Urban County Coalition meeting where they talked about design build legislation and the bottle bill (requirement to go to redemption centers only). The sports betting bill has a very good chance of passing and the key question is where that will be allowed.

Chairperson Walker reported that he will be visiting the Capitol on Monday and Tuesday to explore legislative interests including interim study committee on who would investigate and prosecute officer shootings as well as a statewide "ban the box" legislation.

The Board recessed at 10:35 a.m. and reconvened at 1:30 p.m. to review proposed FY20 budgets for the Auditor and Human Resources. Also present: Steve Tucker, Finance Dir., and Dawn Jindrich, Budget Dir.

Auditor - FY20 proposed appropriations exceed the Board’s guidelines by $4,545.

Steve Tucker stated that he removed the capital outlay from the Auditor’s budget. Supervisor Oleson stated that he has concerns with how the Auditor’s budget is handled yearly include the cost of the sample ballots ($26,000), an extra $10,000 for contracts for salary studies, etc. He feels there is too much room in the budget without consultation from the Board and proposed cutting another $50,000 on top of the $198,000 Tucker recommends cutting.

Motion by Oleson, seconded by Rogers to approve Auditor’s FY20 appropriations in the amt. of $2,522,619 and revenue in the amt. of $256,004.

Discussion: Deputy Auditor Shoop noted that the cost of the two salary studies is being reduced twice (once by Oleson and once by Tucker). Tucker agreed.

Chairperson Walker indicated that the Elections budget deserves more scrutiny, however, he can only agree with a further reduction of $26,655 which is the cost of the sample ballot mailer.

Dawn Jindrich clarified that some of the reductions made to Elections is based on budgeting with actual numbers and amendments may be needed.

Tucker voiced concerns with the manner in which the Auditor’s budget is submitted and that the Board should spend more time asking questions and reviewing Elections budget amendments.

Supervisor Oleson indicated that he will meet with Budget & Finance each month to review this budget and will be intimately involved. Deputy Auditor Stonawski expressed how she thought Auditor Miller would react to this decision, noting that both Supervisor Walker and Rogers were supportive of the sample ballot mailer.

Supervisor Rogers in turn stated that at no time did he approve of the sample ballot mailer and was frustrated with some of the comments she made, understanding that she was channeling what Auditor Miller would be saying.

Oleson offered a friendly amendment to his motion approving the Auditor’s FY 20 appropriations in the amount of $2,545,964 and revenues in the amount of $256,004 (total reduction of $224,321).

VOTE: All Aye.

Becky Shoop, Deputy Auditor, presented an Offer for an Elections Trailer in the amt. of $25,000.

Human Resources - FY 20 proposed appropriation exceeds the Board’s guidelines by $16,125 due to an increase in copier costs, staff training, FSA (flex benefits) administration and recruitment advertising.

Lisa Powell, HR Dir., explained reasons for overages.
