Pramod Dwivedi and Tricia Kitzmann, Public Health, gave the following update on Linn County's response to COVID-19:

- Vaccine supplies are on the front and center of their minds. Asking everyone to be patient. Expect 3,000 doses each week until the end of February.
- Linn County Public Health is planning to hold a vaccination clinic.
- 6,400 doses were split between Walgreens and CVS for 65 and older.
- If you choose to be vaccinated outside Linn County for first dose, the second dose will be harder to receive if choosing to be vaccinated in Linn County.
- Linn County cases are trending downward.
- Linn County has had 18,970 cases, 20 are hospitalized, 1,953 active cases and 312 deaths.

Sara Bearrows, Budget Dir., presented the Fiscal Year 2022 SF 634 Notice of Public Hearing - Proposed Property Tax Levy on total maximum property tax dollars.

Motion by Rogers, seconded by Zumbach set the public hearing to be on March 3, 2021 at 11:00 a.m. regarding proposed property tax levy.

Board Member Reports - Supervisor Zumbach toured the new LIFTS shop and the Juvenile Detention Center. Stopped at the Solid Waste Agency on the way home and attended a Lower Cedar Watershed zoom meeting last night.

Supervisor Rogers reported that he and Supervisor Zumbach participated in the Cedar Rapids and Linn County Conference Board meetings; met with communications staff and Erin Foster re: Mental Health Access Center open house plans; Friday was the weekly COVID call as well as the weekly ASAC call; participated in the Local Homeless Coordinating board meeting; the Point in Time count of the homeless (done twice a year) was completed and verified the need for an overflow winter shelter; will be meeting with city and county staff re: long term vision and plans for the Fillmore Bldg. as an overflow shelter. Yesterday was the LCCS Comm. Services Board meeting.

Supervisor Rogers will forward several emails to the Auditor's Office objecting to the county's mask mandate.

Adjournment at 11:19 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

JOEL D. MILLER, Linn County Auditor
