Update on Linn County’s response to COVID-19:

- Pramod Dwivedi, Public Health Dir. – A virtual town hall meeting is being planned for Friday, June 12; Linn County Public Health is slowly moving toward normal operations; calls continue to come in regarding reopening guidance and event planning; 1,030 cases in Linn County with 80 deaths.

Darrin Gage, Dir. of Policy & Admin., discussed reopening of certain county buildings. He stated that the Treasurer’s Office was given the date of July 15 for the Q-Matic enhancements (accommodate appointments). The Board Support Team recommends the following Monday, July 20.

Treasurer Gonzalez advised the Board that she has been assured that the enhanced Q-Matic system is to be up and running and staff will be trained by July 15. Plan B is getting another message added to the phone system to make an appointment through a shared calendar.

Supervisor Oleson stated that he is seeing a lot of people falling through the cracks (no checking accounts or debit cards) and he sees that several times a day in the parking lot. He is thinking of customer service from the county as a whole.

Motion by Rogers, seconded by Oleson to set July 20 as reopen date of certain Linn County buildings to the public (with no intention to extend further).

Garth Fagerbakke, Facilities Manager, presented change order #1 from Unzeitig Construction Company for the Public Service Center renovation project. This is for equipment in the amount of $7,672.00.
